

Sundays in September

A celebration of the keyboard at Christ Church Cathedral, Newcastle

Terence Koo - Ephemera (Piano)

12noon, Sept 7

In a sneak preview of a new album, Terence Koo opens the series with a multi-media meditation on mortality and the transience of life, spanning jazz, classical and film genres.

Andrew Chubb - The Sunken Cathedral (Piano)

12noon, Sept 14

Pianist and composer Andrew Chubb presents a recital including music of Beethoven and Chopin, as well as original compositions and Debussy's impressionistic masterpiece, The Sunken Cathedral.

David Drury and Gerard Nicholls - Organ Gems

2.30pm, Sept 21

The Cathedral's brilliant Organist in Residence, David Drury, is joined by our Assistant Organist, Gerard Nicholls, in a program of Bach, Widor and more.

Rosalind Halton - Harpsichord and Clavichord

12noon, Sept 28

One of Australia's leading exponents of Baroque music takes on a journey from Bach to Chopin and beyond, with the harpsichord sharing the stage with the rarely heard clavichord.

Tickets and things

Tickets (each concert)

$20 (Adults), $15 (Concession)

Available online (via QR code) or at the door

Christ Church Cathedral
Church St, Newcastle

www.newcastlecathedral.org.au

